Making the Church a Safe Place of Hope & Help for Sexual Strugglers - Presented by John and Ellen

About the Speakers

John Freeman began his ministry with Harvest USA as a volunteer while in seminary. He champions the mission of Harvest USA and has a deep burden to see those who struggle with pornography, homosexuality, and sexual addictions experience changed lives through Jesus Christ. He helps churches implement a ‘culture change’ so that their members can better and more readily grasp the implications of the gospel as it relates to these issues.

He is passionate about equipping the church to better care-take the hearts of individuals and families vulnerable to these struggles. John is a graduate of the University of Tennessee and Westminster Theological Seminary. In addition to his ministry with Harvest USA, John has served as adjunct faculty in the graduate counseling departments of Philadelphia Biblical University and Center of Urban Theological Studies. John and his wife, Penny, have been married for 34 years and have three grown children. Their home is in the Philadelphia area.

Ellen Dykas oversees the Philadelphia office's ministry to women. Her ministry is focused on discipleship with women who are struggling with sexual and relational issues in their own lives, as well as women who are impacted by the sexual sins of their spouses or others.

Ellen is available to teach, equip and encourage others (churches, organizations) to become more effective in ministering the gospel of Christ into the midst of all aspects of sexual brokenness. She was a missionary in Romania and served on a church staff prior to coming to HARVEST USA in 2007. She has a MA in Biblical Studies from Covenant Theological Seminary, and a Graduate Certificate in Biblical Counseling through the Christian Counseling and Education Foundation in Glenside, PA. Ellen brings to this ministry a zeal to help women grow in grace through a deepening relationship with Jesus Christ and the Word of God.
